with almost 150 years of baseball history the stories of many players from before 1900 were long obscured the society for american baseball research sabr first attempted to remedy this in 1989 by publishing a collection of 136 fascinating biographies of talented late 1800s players twenty three years later nineteenth century stars has been updated with revised stats and re released in both a new paperback and in ebook form this book is about anglo american literary heritage it argues that readers on both sides of the atlantic shaped the contours of international english in the 1800s expressing love for books and authors in a wide range of media and social practices it highlights how in the wake of american independence the affection bestowed on authors who became international objects of celebration and commemoration was a major force in the invention of transnational english literature the popular canon defined by shared language and tradition while love as such is difficult to quantify and recover the records of such affection survive not just in print but also in other media in monuments in architecture and in the ephemera of material culture thus this collection brings into view a wide range of nineteenth century expressions of love for literature and its creators
